

Hotel Villagio in Napa Valley Celebrates Multi-Million Dollar Renovation

Jennifer Boden

Hotel Villagio unveils an impressive renovation project, featuring luxurious new rooms, lobby, pool area and the addition of a 5 bedroom, 3600 square foot Private Villa.

The new design of Hotel Villagio (formerly The Villagio Inn and Spa) is Napa-chic, contemporary with farmhouse elements. The hotel is set on The Estate Yountville – an alluring 22-acre village-within-a-village. Hotel Villagio boasts 113 guestrooms, including 22 suites, featuring wood burning fireplaces (to take off that early morning chill), large bathrooms with freestanding tubs, and terraces.

The luxurious lobby features warm woods, dark stone and industrial metal lighting, creating a sophisticated area. "Our stylish pool table anchors the lobby space and the ceiling opens to wood beams featuring dramatic wood trusses that invite guests to explore The Estate Yountville's bold re-envisioning," said Elizabeth Grillos, The Estate Yountville Area Director of Sales and Marketing. "SB Architects reinvented Hotel Villagio's public space by blurring lines between lobby and bar experiences, making guests feel at-ease within the high-class casual environment."

Hotel Villagio is replete with fine amenities: a pool with optional cabanas; poolside dining, a full-service spa; onsite hot air balloons; restaurants, shops and tasting rooms just a short walk away. You can indulge your senses without ever getting in your car.

"We love hosting guests of Hotel Villagio at The Silver Trident Winery Tasting Home, and literally roll out the red carpet upon their arrival. We are located at The Estate Yountville, just steps away from the newly designed hotel," said Shane Soldinger, GM of Silver Trident Winery. "Every guest who visits our Tasting Home can expect a warm welcome, luxuriously furnished surroundings and an informative tasting experience. Like Silver Trident Winery, Hotel Villagio is dedicated to providing the highest quality product and guest experience possible. We both share a passion for world class hospitality, luxury, comfort and style."
